

Drawn by Rainwater

—Copyright 1920 The Bell Syndicate

WHEN OLD BILL REACHED OUR SHORES

He says a charge of T. N. T. couldn't do more damage to a bit o' luggage than a U. S. Customs Inspector.

OLD BILL—By Captain Bruce Bairnsfather

"CURSE THE CHEWING GUM!"

—Copyright 1920 by Red Syndicate, Inc.

OLD BILL—By Captain Bruce Bairnsfather

DAILY T
OFFICE

The Paper is out again
Today, but under difficulties.

Old Bill has come in sympathy with the Waste Paper Basket Emptiers, who want half the size of basket, and less paper with double wages.

EVERYBODY'S DOIN' IT

—Copyright 1929 by Bill Brydson, Inc.

OLD BILL <sup>AT THE</sup> LYCEUM

THE MAN WHO WON THE WAR

Back page of the programme for Old Bill M.P. at the Lyceum, 1922.

"Well 'ere's to the best Lubrication!
Industrial or Personal!"

'ullo!

Ponce
Bainefather

Now, I've got a suit and handkerchief as worn by the Prince of Wales, all I want is a Prince of Wales hat

Will you sign a document, swearing that the Prince of Wales wears this?

No wonder Republics are comin' in

"It is perhaps a good thing that the Crown Prince of Pom-Pom-Poo Land does not set fashions"

Barrisfather

My dear Old Bill,
hope you can come round
and join us tonight.
Come as you are,
don't bother to dress, just put on any old thing
and come along...
et...etc

That's what to be just are and feel

I like! A party easy! Go as you at home! I'll put on that old hunting suit
of mine!

There's something wrong somewhere

Wanted: Large trap-door To admit one